

Section 9, line 16, strike out all after the word "act;"

Which was assented to.

Mr. Stirling proposed the following amendments :

Strike out the sixth section of the substitute reported by the committee of Ways and Means, and insert the following as the sixth section :

" Section 6th. And be it enacted, That no license shall be issued to any person or persons as hereinbefore provided for, who has or have heretofore acted or held himself or themselves out as agent or agents for any individual or association of individuals or corporation, not incorporated by the laws of this State as aforesaid, until such person or persons shall have paid into the treasury the sum of one hundred dollars per annum for every year during which said person or persons acted, professed, or held himself or themselves out to act as such agent or agents, and no license shall be granted to any person or persons to act as agent or agents under this act for any individual, association, or corporation, not incorporated by the State, until the Comptroller shall be duly satisfied that all or any other agent or agents, by whom the said individual association or corporation shall have been heretofore represented as the agent or agents thereof has or have paid into the treasury the annual license of one hundred dollars, provided for and required by the act of 1846, chapter 357, for every year during which the said agent or agents acted or held himself or themselves out to act as agent or agents of said individual, association, or corporation;

Which was assented to.

Section 12. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from its passage;

Which was assented to.

Mr. Harrington proposed the following amendment:

Section 12. And be it enacted, That the Comptroller be and is hereby authorised to issue his order on the treasurer, for the amount when ascertained, the amount paid Foreign Agents of Foreign Companies licensed by this State to procure insurance in this State for the three per cent. that has been paid, as is believed to be unconstitutional as declared by Chancellor Kent and others;

Which was not assented to.

The substitute then as amended, was read the second time; and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

On motion of Mr. Stirling,
